

Dear Scott,

On behalf of the Certified Contractors Network, its members, and guests, we wanted to express our appreciation to you for your participation in the 2010 Business Building Conference. Having you as our keynote speaker was an extremely rewarding experience, and very well received by all of the attendees.

At CCN, we pride ourselves on providing our members with the highest standard of service. Once again, thank you for making the 2010 Business Building Conference successful, and we appreciate your continued support of Certified Contractors Network and its members.

Sincerely,
Francesca Louis
Marketing and Events Coordinator
