Scott,

Thank you for your contribution to a successful 2008 kick off for the GE Healthcare's IT business' Sales and Marketing organization. Your story was very inspirational and your message motivational. What really confirmed that you were the right choice for this meeting was your ability to take the information you gathered in our pre-meeting call and weave it seamlessly into your message, which made it relevant to each and every person in the room. You really hit a home run with the team, which is evident from the following comments we received in our post meeting survey:

Excellent...moving...totally nailed the message that the team needed to hear in light of the OP challenges we face this year.

Very motivational, excellent story with real life connections.

He was awesome! One of the best keynote addresses I've ever heard.

Wow, did not see that coming huh! Incredible presentation, captivated the audience and gave us all a sense of thankfulness.

While some motivational speakers are pro-forma, Scott actually brought out strong emotional reactions from many of us. He put personal commitment at the top for me.

Thank you again,
