To Whom It May Concern:

On behalf of Robroy Industries, we sincerely thank Scott Burrows for his truly outstanding presentation at the company's annual bonus dinner, February 14, 2007 in Longview, Texas.

Scott's exceptional professionalism resulted not only in a heartfelt standing ovation from all in attendance, but successfully underscored the highly important theme of how individuals can overcome obstacles even in the most extreme or unanticipated circumstances. Moreover, Scott was able to link individual achievement with the role of an individual in helping a forward-thinking team to become more than the sum of its parts.

We were all very pleased with the extent to which Scott worked in advance, at short notice, to understand the themes of the event as well as the nature of the company's business. His preparation thoroughly integrated our objectives with his core messages.

We warmly recommend to other companies the motivational, dramatic, and effective presentation of Scott Burrows.

Good afternoon Scott,

I am pleased that you arrived home safely. Please extend my appreciation to your wife for letting you out on Valentines Day.

You can feel proud of your performance last night, it was spectacular. The gauge I use, is that neither you or I were 'tarred and feathered", and run out of town on a rail.

By copy of this note, I am asking Mark Bruner, to prepare a testimonial for you, hopefully leaving out the bit about having to herd homeless people into the Summit Club to listen to you.

Once again, very well done.

Best regards,
